A MONTHLY CAMPAIGN FINANCE NEWSLETTER FOR LOCAL ELECTION OFFICIALS

As town and city candidates prepare for the 2021 elections, we encourage them to register for Reporter 7, OCPF's on-line reporting system, if they file locally.

To register, they only need to complete and send a M101 form to OCPF@cpf.state.ma.us (it does not need to be signed).

Reporter 7 allows municipal candidates to complete, print and sign reports. Benefits? It does all the math, it's easy for the public to read, and becomes a permanent database for their campaign finance records.

If you have e-mails for your candidates, please share this video tutorial with them (R7 for municipal candidates who file locally). Currently, 325 town and city candidates use Reporter 7.

GENERAL OCPF UPDATE

1. This election year was the first in which House and Senate candidates filed campaign finance reports in the depository reporting system. Click here to see their totals, as of the previous month.
2. OCPF's legal team has resolved about two dozen cases this year, some involving municipal candidates. Our legal resolutions are available here.
3. We're sure you saw the motor vehicle data and ranked-choice voting commercials. Our office worked the past several months with the four ballot question committees that were running those ads, to assist them with compliance. Final BQ totals here.
4. We've organized hundreds of local party committees since March. Click here for their 2020 pre-primary and pre-election reports.
5. Mike Sullivan continues to serve as director pro tem. He retired last year, but is running the office while the search for a new director has been delayed due to COVID-19.
