CITY CLERK SELECTED AS OCPF'S NEXT DIRECTOR

Woburn City Clerk William Campbell was selected in late February to serve as OCPF's next director, replacing Michael Sullivan of Newburyport, also a former city clerk.

Campbell is expected to start at OCPF in April. He was appointed by a commission made up of Secretary of the Commonwealth William Galvin, the chair of the state Democratic Party, Gus Bickford, the chair of the state Republican Party, Jim Lyons, and Boston College Law School Dean Vincent Rougeau.

Campbell was appointed city clerk of Woburn in 1997 and is the past president of the Massachusetts City Clerks Association. He is a graduate of Boston College and earned a J.D. from Quinnipiac University School of Law, formerly known as the University of Bridgeport School of Law. He is also a former Woburn alderman.

Sullivan retired from OCPF in late 2019, but returned as director pro tem during most of the COVID-19 emergency. He started as OCPF director in 1994.

FAQ: I'm self-funding my campaign. Do I need to form a committee and file campaign finance reports?

ANSWER: You do not need to form a committee, but everyone who appears on a ballot must file campaign finance reports.
