Posting campaign finance reports to municipal websites

OCPF has created a 1-minute tutorial on how and when to post campaign finance reports to municipal websites. Click here for the tutorial.

The statute requires campaign finance reports to be posted if they exceed $1,000 in activity, but we recommend posting all reports.

OCPF will teach a class at the Springfield conference

OCPF will teach an educational course at the fall conference at the Sheraton Springfield Monarch Place Hotel.

The session is at 9 a.m. Friday, Sept. 28, and will cover campaign finance filing requirements for municipal elections, as well as other information that clerks may find helpful.

Local party committee reports are listed in a convenient location

Local party committees don't have to file with you, but we sometimes get requests from city and town clerks who want to see the reports filed by municipal Democrats and Republicans.

We've posted all local party committee reports to the OCPF website, if they were e-filed. The reports are available here.

If you don't see your community's reports, it may be that they had little or no activity and were not required to e-file with OCPF. Some committees with minimal activity filed reports on paper.
